CONTEMPLATION

Remember that in body thine a God is dwelling there
Thy Temple from pollution free let it forever be.
Offend thou not thy God in thee, indulging in man's lusts;
Moreover if tormenting self thou groanest foolishly.
God has descended just to see the world with eyes of thine,
Then breathe on Him with senses pure, the Breath of Sacrifice.
It's He in thee, that sees, feels, thinks, and speaks by day and night.
Be thus in all thou dost see, feel, think, speak—divinely bright.

We all admire a man who says what he thinks—as long as he says it about other people.

Jews Preparing to Murder Americans

GLAMOROUS PURIM FORMULA

By Rabbi Leon Spitz in THE AMERICAN HEBREW, March 1, 1946

Exterminate Anti-Semitic Termites As Our Ancestors Did 2,500 Years Ago

The Purim festival offers a formula to combat anti-Semitism. And no wonder, since it was during those Purim days, just about twenty-five hundred years ago that Jews lived for the first time in their history in Galuth. And it was then that Jews met the anti-Semite face to face—and triumphed over him.

To the question, how did he do it? a rereading of the Book of Esther will afford the answer. No, there was no miracle about it at all. Fact is, the Purim festival is unique in this respect that nothing supernautral is mentioned in its connection. It is also unique in that the name of God does not occur in the entire story. It presents just this one problem, the problem of anti-Semitism and affords a realistic solution, which seems to have a substantial amount of merit.

And yet it is this holiday about which poets have composed songs and ditties beginning with the Medieaval Shoshanat Yakob to "Haman was a Wicked Man" and "Shu Shu shu shu" so popular in our American Sunday schools. It is this festival which has evoked not a few of the great masterpieces by the master-painters of Christendom which are exhibited in the finest National Museums and Galleries in many a European Capital. These Purim paintings are to be found even among the priceless objects d'art which Goering and his hoodlums have looted and hidden away, now to be rediscovered one by one by American art experts. Purim launched the Yiddish Theatre with Esther as the charming heorine, Mordecai the popular hero, and Haman the villian par excellence. In the sunny climates of Italy and Southern France Purim carnivals were in vogue while in German and Hollandish Synagogue Haman was burnt in effigy and with unrestrained glee. To this very day in a thousand Synagogues his name is hissed and mimicked on Megillah night to the accompaniment of haman klappers and every other variety of festive noisemaker.

Dealing as it does with the most serious problem of Jewish life, the perennial curse of anti-Semitism, the festival has yet become the merriest and the gayest in the Jewish calendar. The Order of the Day includes wine drinking, the Purim Seuda or Banquet to top off the holiday which was launched on Megillah night by the public reading of the Story of Esther. It by no means neglects the giving of charity to the poor and it stresses the practice of Shalach Mones or the Exchange of Presents among relatives and friends. Every ear mark of festivity lends its bit of gaiety to make this the most glamorous of Jewish holidays. And so it goes.

But why all this?

For the very simple reason that the Purim festival spelled to Every Jew of Every Generation the call to fight the good fight with a pretty definite assurance that victory and triumph were just right around the corner. The Purim story mirrored the precariousness and the uniqueness of Jewish Life in Exile. Withal it re-emphasizes the story-book formula that all's well that ends well, and every Jew lived happily ever after.

In every way Jewish life as lived in the Purim story mirrors Jewish life outside of Palestine in every age and epoch of Jewish history. Mordecai and Esther had Persian names, they spoke the language of the country of their adoption, they participated in the life about them, they attained posts of honor and of prestige. And simultaneously they had their own organized Jewish life and they adhererd to their faith and to their traditions. And then anti-Semitism struck.

The causes were the perennial causes; jealousy, race hatred, the Jews were aliens, they were—that greatest of unforgiveable crimes—they were DIFFERENT. In the words of the Megillat Esther, "Their laws are diverse from those of every people; neither keep they the king's laws." Haman too alludes to the loot which would be poured into the Royal Treasury by confiscating Jewish property, "I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to bring it into the king's treasuries." There is too the genuine Hitlerian touch. Hitler resentful of certain individual Jews, determined to revenge himself upon the entire Jewish nation. Likewise Haman in his day, resented Mordecai and sought to massacre all the Jews.

Selfrespect—The Megillah is crystal clear on this point. Mordecai the Jew did not kneel nor did he prostrate. No matter what the price, his Jewish selfrespect permitted no compromises.

Unity! Esther's counsel to Mordecai was, Go forth and assemble all the Jews of Shushan. American Jewry must present a united front in combatting its enemies. This is a first essential prerequisite before the ranks can be closed. It is a Must technique which evey battle in human experience prescribes. Jews of every religious denomination and of every sort and manner of theoretical grouping, the maximum and the minimum Jews are dutybound to keep well in mind Ben Franklin's revolutionary bonmot, If we don't hang together we shall hang separately. Jews must learn to get along together and to embark on common action, to achieve their goals and to protect their rights.

Faith! A people must have faith both in its destiny and in its own power to achieve that destiny. "Enlargement and Deliverance will arise unto the Jews from another source."

Sacrifice! Yes, there must be those who, more alive to the problems of Jewry and placed strategically where they can help their people, must be willing to render the needful service even to the point of personal sacrifice. Noblesse oblige. They who are endowed with health, or prestige or influence, or talent—with the ammunition that plays a determining role in a Democracy—must be induced to make use of their ammunition in the protection of their fellow-Jews. For in the security of the entire Family of Israel is assured the peace and the security of every individual Member of that Family.

And lastly, Courage.

The kind of courage that Mordecai and the Jews of Shushan displayed was to meet the enemy in physical combat. It was the kind of courage which the Allied soldier displayed when he met Nazi and Jap in battle. It was the kind of courage the flower of the Jewish Youth of Palestine exhibits in its battle for free entry to Palestine. For too many thousand of years The Voice has been The Voice of Jacob and the Hand was the Hand of Esau forever raised against his brother. Perhaps the time has come when roles should be changed. Let Esau whine and wail and protest to the civilized world, and let Jacob raise his hand to fight the good fight.

For the anti-Semite has no morality, and he has no conscience. He understands but one language, and he must be dealt with on his own level. The Purim Jews stood up for their lives. American Jews too must come to grips with our contemporary anti-Semites. We must fill our jails with anti-Semitic gangsters, we must fill our insane asylums with anti-Semitic lunatics, we must combat every alien Jew-hater, we must harass and prosecute our Jew baiters to the extreme limits of the laws, we must humble and shame our anti-Semitic hoodlums to such an extent that none will wish to dare to become 'fellow-travelers.'

Superstitions of the Learned Lawyers

By C. LEON de ARYAN

KENNY, OLNEY, BRINK, MATHES

Science and Faith go hand in hand to build the world that survives destruction. No matter how great the ruin, Faith comes forth, like Nature's springtime, to spread new strength and miraculously and mysteriously shower new life into tortured hearts. Faith, good faith, is the mother of Science.

You never thought of that? That the scientist has faith in the true principle in Nature which reproduces itself in manifestation? Don't you have faith in the correctness of mathematics? Does the engineer not have faith in the exactness of his formulas which he uses to move mountains and fly thru space? Did Lindbergh not have faith in his figures when he took off from the Ryan airfield in San Diego to fly off St. Louis and thence nonchalantly across the Atlantic, opening the path for the world to follow?

What is faith but the knowledge of the truth, the conviction that the truth is true. This conviction moves mountains. And the opposite of faith is superstition.

Stalin, Hitler, FDR and every mass murderer are faithless. They are governed by superstition, the superstition of the masses; the superstition that quanity mass can supercede quality truth. They are building upon sand, the quicksand of ignorance. Thus the Sanhedrin inveigled the superstitious mob to riot and demand the crucifixion of the Savior. The Sanhedrin, the Learned Lawyers, are ruled by superstition, the superstition that by fooling the large majority of the people governments are established and the rulers can live in opulence upon the spiritual, if not physical misery of their dupes.

And so, each week as I take off from Lindbergh field to fly to Los Angeles and attend the sessions of Bell's bankruptcy trial I am faced with the superstition of the learned judges and lawyers who cannot comprehend what Bell is really doing and in their logical pride refuse to ascribe a divine mission to him, as Bell's adherents do, but seek the explanation by investing him with devilish motives. The Devil is as much a product of superstition as the foolish gods, the supernatural powers of the idols of mass hypnosis.

POLITICIANS ARE SUPERSTITIOUS

Let us bear in mind that Faith, to be such, must be scientifically correct and well rooted in Truth. If Science is not rooted in truth its operations will not produce results that can be unfailingly counted upon. The scientist has faith in his knowledge.

The politician, on the other hand, builds his house upon the sand of the psychology of ignorant people. He has to sway the mass to hold power either by fair or foul means. Either by truth or violence, even violence to truth, rooted in superstition. And remember that our judges are politicians, hence they are all superstitious. Unlike the sons of science, who have their eyes open, modern justice is blind. Modern jurisprudence does not relate to truth but to the whim of the law-makers. Law is what they say it is, thus crimes are legalized and God is ostracised and Faith in Justice goes out, too.

At the Arthur L. (the Voice) Bell bankruptcy trial this feature is coming out in strong relief. Here a man tells how he received an impulse to use his talents in the economic-religious field and pioneer by demonstrating, as Lindbergh did in aeronautics, that the Christian formula of Faith works in social economics already NOW, HERE in this world under all circumstances. And a "mysterious" voice told him how to proceed, informing him that he was only one of many who are working in the Lord's vineyard. Bell, then, announced to his followers that theirs was only one of the large and numerous groups of "underground" workers in the service of the Lord who are preparing the advent of the Millenium and that his task was to arouse the people until enough would take heart to eliminate the slaughter of war forever. People have faith in numbers, in mass, so 200 million souls became their goal.

But War II came along and bowled Bell and his lieutenants over. Hence, instead of quantity, Bell decided to rely on quality. He scanned the roster of the faithful and selected over 800 to form an economic-religious unit and demonstrate the truth of the Christ formula in practical social life achievements by saving labor thru co-operation in place of wasting it and goods in warfare. And he succeeded.

But he ran afoul of the labor racket. Hence the CIO urged the faithless politician Robert W. Kenny, attorney general of California, to use the powers of his office and destroy Bell's "Church" by charging him with fraud. Kenny assigned this task to Warren Olney III, an unscrupulous character assassin who had demonstrated his fiendish adeptness when he swayed, thru mass hysteria and nightly radio programs from San Francisco, that jury in the Sacramento court in 1942 that found nine innocent people, the "friends of Progress" "guilty" of subversive activities, in violation of an unconstitutional law, enacted by an imbecile legislature.

Olney had no trouble at all with the help of his stoolpigeon "investigators" to dig up dissatisfied members of Bell's church and pervert everyone of Bell's acts into malicious motives. And now comes the trial before other politicians.

JUDGE BENNO M. BRINK

I sat for months past in the referee's little court room on the third floor of the P. O. building taking it all in. Judge Brink is a Roman Catholic. He swallows the DOGMAS of his church as holy, but assigns ulterior intent to Bell's. The Roman dogmas were invented to silence the questioning minds concerning "supernatural" conditions which have to be taken on faith, blindly, relying upon the good intent of the church authorities who alone decide and rule. The mystery of the Trinity of divine conception, the raising from the dead, turning water into wine and the power of apostolic succession to open hell and heaven to the multitude and to individuals, all these mysteries are O. K. when propounded by the Pope's outfit but are fraudulent when similar recourse is taken by Bell in dealing with his followers.

Mind you, Brink is an honest and sincere fellow, limited by his ignorance. He is superstitious as they come, both religiously and legally. What he cannot comprehend is either supernatural dogma, or devilish design. Since Bell is not an emissary of the Pope, he MUST be, according to Brink, of the Devil. And thus the mind of this politically appointed judge runs amuck. Anything that exceeds his mental horizon becomes a motive from hell.

His decision in the White "fraud" case is a perfect illustration.

Says the learned lawyer from the bench: "The fact that he produced no evidence or even made any attempt to do so, proves the falsity of the representation of the existence of some kind of organization; these representations were fraudulent and unquestionably were made with intent to deceive". Brink referred to the statements in the book "Mankind United" that Bell's group was part of a larger organization.

The lack of logic in Brink's reasoning is self-evident. Legislative bodies established the rule that where a trustee refuses to accounts it constitutes "evidence" of fraud. This is superstition, fear of the Devil. There may be millions of GOOD REASONS for refusals. But in the ordinary cross-section of humanity the average motive could be as the legislative body and Brink assume. Yet such average possibilty is not the infallible sequence. The very fact of its average proves the exception. And JUSTICE, when it blindly follows the rule set down by fallible minds, becomes miscarriage of justice while applying that rule without exception, as a rule of evidence.

Brink is broadminded enough to admit the possibility that all of Bell's "mysterious" actions might be based on good motives to protect his trust; that Bell maneuvered funds in a fashion to keep the church alive in case of disaster, hence had them written in his wife's name, or his own. But Brink is piqued because Bell refuses to take him into confidence.

Well, in the first instance: Bell is a part of the numberless groups of Christ's organization which works in mysterious ways to promote PROGRESS of the souls on earth. That the other groups don't go by the name "M. U." does not discredit the statement. In a measure even the Roman Church is doing good for certain types of people and is a part of the groups referred to in the book. The point is that Bell himself, being as limited in his horizon as Brink is respectively, Bell being a dyed in the wool "Christian Scientist" with all the limitations of that typical pattern, misinterpreted his impressions which he received psychically and intuitively, but does that constitute fraud? evil intent?

Next, Bell disclosed to me sufficiently of the things he keeps away from Brink and Mathes, so that I can see thru the Mystery of his activities, because Bell trusts me as a co-worker of the Christ against WAR, while Brink is "patriotically" supporting the "government's" war activities which we as Christians oppose. If what is disclosed in Brink's or Mathes' court were to convey immunity from misusing it to destroy Bell's church, the "mystery" could be easily and advantageously lifted, but as long as Olney can use it, and the CIO and the war-maker's organization can muster their powers of persecution to attack the source of Bell's support, Bell would betray his trust if he lifted the veil.

When man-made rules supersede the rules of logic in dealing with what constitutes evidence, naturally, then superstition sets in: "Bell is either from God, or else from the Devil", says the ignorant.

But the truth is that he does not know of a better way of doing his work, and while groping, keeps his secret encased in what appears to be a clammy, slimy mass, disgusting to Brink and Mathes, but, believe it or not, in that tight and clammy shell is the pearl without price, placed in Bell's keeping, regardless of his faults and limitations.

"HE WHO IS WITHOUT SIN"

The White's thru Lee Combs, another superstitious lawyer, entered court with the claim that Bell defrauded them when making promises of economic improvements to follow where people live up to Christ's Golden Rule. The learned Judges, Brink and Mathes, denounce Bell as betrayer of this trust.

Now let's have a look at these lawyers and the Whites.

Poor Whites! gave their all to Bell, the betrayer, when he wrote it down in black and white, which they read, that membership in the organization does not constitute ANY legal obligation of giving them EVEN a crust of bread. That the Whites were taking pot luck with the working out of conditions in Christ's service, the results to come as a natural sequence to perfect faith in the Christ, not in Bell, who even did not want his name to be known, since the contract was with the Christ.

How did the US government act in the conduct of this war that was to bring the four freedoms from the Atlantic to the Pacific, everywhere in the world?

If Bell is a fraud, what is the US government? Has the "VICTORY" with its mysterious "V" for victory, produced any semblance of even ONE freedom, anywhere in the world, to say nothing of Everywhere? ! or FOUR of them?!

Can the veterans, their parents, wives and children, not come forth with more grieveous claims of fraud against the government, at a much greater damage to their bodies, souls and the property of the nation, than the Whites did? If Bell's conduct makes him a criminal what does FDR's make him? If there is a "conspiracy" by Bell and his lieutenants to defraud the "Church", what does the result of the war prove to the nation, the world? Yet all these politicians now persecuting Bell and his followers, sanctimoniously ignore and support the fraud perpetrated upon the 2 billions of gullible souls everywhere in the world and the fraud and superstitions of war as a way to freedom continues. How much money was stolen from those who pay taxes to defray the excesses which various investigating committees of congress are bringing to light? Yet Bell was adjudged "seditious" when he advised his group to invest their funds with him rather than buy war bonds. Promoting peace is "sedition", a crime.

THE MENACE OF LITTLE MINDS

It is the nature of little minds that their pride forbids them to admit their inability to judge right. Could they recognize their own shortcomings they would be little minds no longer. What they cannot understand, naturally, becomes evil in their judgment. Especially when they have been hired to be judge or prosecutors.

Where the patriotic hysteria of heroics prevails, of course, whoever dares point to their criminal "ideals" of warfare, has, perforce, committed the unpardonable sin in their estimate by calling them idiotic murderers, blasphemers of God's name by implication who give lipservice to the Almighty but resort to murder in place of trusting His regime and obeying His commandments. When such little minds are in the seat of power, tyranny runs wild and those who oppose their atheistic and materialistic bigotry are sentenced as criminals before the bar of "justice". To protect the nation from such little minds the Bill of Rights was written into the U. S. Constitution. But what is an oath to a politician ? especially a superstitious politician, a learned lawyer?

The menace of little minds produced the Nazis and the Commies. Only little minds would join their ranks. But little minds are not the exclusive product of Germany and Russia, we have them right in our own midst. Good Lord deliver us!

BETRAYING JEWS and MURDERING THE PEOPLE

By HENRY H. KLEIN

(Copyright 1946 by Henry H. Klein)

(Concluded from last week)

The American Jewish Conference is another overall Jewish organization in the United States. Its head is Henry Monsky, an Omaha lawyer, who is also the head of the B'nai B'rith which is 100 years old and originated in Europe. The B'nai B'rith was once a useful benevolent organization. It has become a political racket since it organized the Anti-Defamation League, about 25 years ago. The League is financed by the B'nai B'rith and the American Jewish Committee jointly, its announced budget for 1946 being four million dollars.

These three organizations, the American Jewish Committee, American Jewish Congress and American Jewish Conference, are financed not only by their membership, but by outsiders as well. Their regular incomes are augmented by special drives for additional funds, their total annual incomes running into the millions. The B'nai B'rith indulges in many activities, one of them being the establishment of Hillel Foundations in American colleges, to keep Jewish tradition alive.

Each of these three organizations publishes weekly and monthly bulletins and magazines, the most pretensious of which is the Contemporary Record, published by the American Jewish Committee. The Committee also publishes a monthly "Reporter", a recent issue of which tells of the prosecution by its agents of three Christians who spoke at a public meeting in Queens Borough, N. Y. City, and who were convicted of "unlawful assembly".

The American Jewish Congress publishes the Congress Weekly and the Conference and B'nai B'rith, also publish bulletins and periodicals. The membership of all these organizations runs into the hundreds of thousands. Affiliated with them are various other organizations, all of whose members come under the same propaganda spell.

There are many zionists groups working to offset the effect of the publication of the Protocols, and to carry out its program. The leading organizations in this group are the Zionist Organization of America, Zionist Emergency Council and Zionist Revisionist Organization. These organizations have many branches in the United States. There are various zionists funds, the total of which amounts to many millions of dollars annually. Some of the persons most active in the zionist movement have large private investments in Palestine. These organizations publish bulletins and magazines also.

Besides these groups, there are many other so-called pro-Jewish organizations. There is the so-called Friends of Democracy, headed by Leon Birkhead and the Non Sectarian Anti Nazi League. The former organization financed the publication of the smear book entitled "Under Cover" by the communist Derounian, with many aliases, and it publishes the bulletin known as the "Propaganda Battlefront". Winchell boosted the sale of "Under Cover" to 800,000 copies. Chapters of this book were published serially in pro-Jewish newspapers, while the grand jury that later indicted some of these so-called anti-Semites, was in secret session in Washington, D. C. They were indicted and charged with conspiracy to undermine the morale of the armed forces of the United States.

The so-called Non Sectarian Anti Nazi League was organized in 1933 under the aegis and with the financial backing of the late Samuel Untermyer, who gave it up after two years when he realized it had degenerated into a racket. The racket was continued by others and still flourishes by shaking down business people for contributions. A recent head of this organization claims to have furnished most of the "evidence" on which the so-called "conspirators" were indicted in Washington, D. C., first in July, 1942, then in January, 1943 and January, 1944.

The business of "protecting Jews" became a lucrative racket for periodical Jewish publications whose agents shook down Jewish merchants and storekeepers for what ever they could get from a fortune to a subscription for a few dollars. They cashed in on every propaganda news item, no matter how untrue it was. There are some large shakedowns recorded in the files of some of these various pro-Jewish agencies.

All this means that Judiasm and Zionism are rackets and that the Jewish people have been imposed upon and are being betrayed. It also means that political zionism is a menace. It is acknowledged as an essential part of the protocol plan for world control. The Jews as a whole, know nothing of this plan. They know of their Messianic dream, but they do not realize that this dream is being used to fulfill a political and commercial program. When the Jewish people wake up, they will repudiate the Protocol plan, but it will be too late to undo the damage already done. The Money Gang is behind the plan and the political zionists are carrying out its last stages.

Some of the political zionists have become rich in recent years. Some of them are financially interested in oil, chemicals, water power, transportation, real estate and mortgages in Palestine. Others are interested in insurance and mining. Many zionists leaders are still stockholders in the British chemical monopoly headed by the late Lord Melchett, who was a leading zionist.

All of which means that political zionism is a menace to the Jew and a rank betrayal of the Jewish Messianic dream. King Commerce has dethroned King David in Palestine.

U. S. to Appeal 'Mankind United' Indemnity Judgment

LOS ANGELES,— United States attorneys were preparing an appeal from a recent precedent shattering Federal court decision ordering an army general to pay for damages caused to a civilian in his exclusion from the Pacific coast area during the war.

Major significance is attached to the ruling because it declared illegal the use of troops in forcing war time exclusions, upheld the right of civilians to sue military officers for damages incurred in these evictions, and assertedly paved the way for similar suits by other occidentals and more than 70,000 Japanese moved from the western coast defense district.

Token damages of $100 were assessed against Lt. Gen. John L. De Witt, former head of the western defense command, by United States District Judge Peirson M. Hall in a ruling announced July 29.

RELIGIOUS LEADER INVOLVED

The general was ordered to pay the money to Homer Glen Wilcox of San Diego, Cal., bureau manager of a religious group known as Christ's Church of the Golden Rule, formerly called Mankind United.

A New Job for Rogge

WASHINGTON,— Responsible government officials said it was a "certainty" the German-American bund was crushed by the F. B. I. early in the war and could therefore have no link with present Ku Klux Klan activities.

Their statement followed disclosure that Gov. Ellis Arnall, of Georgia, had asked President Truman for an immediate investigation of a possible connection between underground remnants of the bund and the K. K. K.

Arnall was said to have asked specifically that the F. B. I. and O. John Rogge, special justice department prosecutor in the mass sedition trial, be assigned to the inquiry.

During the eight-month sedition trial Rogge brought out evidence of a pre-war link between the bund and the K. K. K. It was said that Arnall feared such a link still existed.

While reliable officials discounted Arnall's fears, they did not rule out the possibility that the Klan may have allied itself to some other Fascist groups. Arnall's letter to Truman may set off an inquiry into such possibilities.

Slave-workers in France

GENEVA,— France is arranging to release some German war prisoners and rehire them as civilian labor and also has begun resettlement of 5,000 Polish displaced persons from her occupied zone in western Germany, French delegates disclosed at the recent UNRRA council here.

But the Polish DP's being moved to France's northern coal mines do not actually represent a gain for France's diminished man power. In exchange for DP's going to France, the Warsaw government has obtained a French promise to repatriate to Poland an equal number of Poles caught in France when the war began in 1939.

The offer of freedom to a certain group of Germans apparently was arranged to improve the coal output. The French believe they will work harder if given the opportunity to resume normal life.

CURB AGAINST TRAVEL

The released prisoners would be expected to make France their new home, a French delegate said. But for a cerain length of time they would be confined to the areas where they work, without permission to move freely about France.

Otherwise they are due to have the same privileges as any French worker.

Romania, Alzen, April 24-46

Dearest Sister-in-law:

Weep not I weep for you too. Your dear letter tells me that you have not heard of our deep tragedy, although this is my third letter to you. The letter you have sent your beloved brother cannot reach him any more for he has departed from us Jan., 28, 1945 when most all of the intellectual of our people were herded together to be sent into Russia—my dear husband was not a traitor.

He served in his country in the first World War, now in this one as an instructing officer in training camps, then he was sent to the battle front, was wounded and now on sick leave, was a school teacher but was pensioned when he became extremely nervous, he had been shell shocked in first War. He was 50 years old and now they were here to drag him away again from our home that we had started to build before the war began, was now only half completed yet he hoped, he prayed for that day to come when once more there would be Peace on Earth again. Peace among all men, and now this, a horrible night never to be forgotten, when your own people you have trusted come to deliver you to a fate more terrible even than death. My dear husband's mind snapped before anyone could stop him, he with his own hand sent a bullet into his brain. I fell into a faint from shock and lay there for hours when I came to, I had chills so bad that I hovered between life and death for months. I just cannot believe that anyone would want to destroy a man as good, honest and true. Always planning how he could help his fellowman.

I know there are few such men as he was in this world of ours. His fondest wish was to welcome you to his home, the kind of home he had always wished for, the home we worked very hard and saved for. Just the day before this tragedy he was planning on when we had completed our home he would invite you here to spend some time with us, to show you the completion of his life long dream, a home, flowers and trees and raising bees, which he always had because he loved them and they loved him. May our dear God shine His sun upon us once again before we all perish.

In deepest sorrow yours, SUSY

CATHOLIC AND PROTESTANT CHURCHES OF GERMANY GIVE VICTORS A LECTURE IN JUSTICE

That is the crime the German bishops described in their joint pastoral this spring, which so irritated the conscience of our AMG, over there to teach the Germans the democratic Four Freedoms, that they promptly caused it to be withdrawn (INS, "U. S. Catholics Indignant At Gag on German Bishops," Alamo Register, May 3, 1946). What the German bishops, apparently more imbued with the Four Freedoms than their re-educators, said was, "The German people's sense of justice suffers also lately from the fact that today, almost twelve months after the cessation of hostilities, millions of German prisoners of war are still detained indefinitely, often under miserable conditions, and deprived of their freedom..

"Hundreds of thousands, if not millions, are put like slaves to forced labor, although the only thing with which they can be reproached is the fact that they were soldiers. Many of these poor fellows are without news from home and have not been allowed to send a sign of life to their dear ones." (From Brooklyn Tablet, May 4, 1946). Protestant Church leaders in Germany felt the same way about the detention of millions of German boys by the Allies. Dr. Otto Fricke, director of foreign relations for the Evangelical Church in Germany, declared after the Catholic joint pastoral had been suppressed that previously "a similarly critical, though more mildly phrased letter, was read in Evangelical churches" (RNS, Frankfurt, Apr. 29, 1946).

THE U. S. IN PRINCIPLE JUST AS GUILTY AS SOVIET RUSSIA

It would be "nice" if this German condemnation pertained only to Soviet Russia. But unfortunately, as long as we hold thousands of Germans as slaves over here and possibly a million farmed out to France and Britain, we are in principle just as guilty as Russia—and so our AMG boys, unwilling to free the slaves, preferred to shackle speech and the press, too. When one starts being unjust, one can't stop with one injustice. Any just and honest American will hang his head in shame that this country should be partner to the pagan and Judaistic reparation slavery of prisoners of war. "Multitudes of civilians and prisoners of war have been deported," charged the American Catholic bishops this spring, "and degraded into forced labor unworthy of human beings" (NC, Washington, May 5, 1946).

GERMAN ALIEN LABOR DRAFT IN WAR NO JUSTIFICATION FOR UNITED NATIONS LABOR SLAVERY IN PEACE

Some harsh peace boys, determined to be as brutal as possible but on an eye-for-an-eye pretext, like to remember that the Germans drafted foreign labor while they were waging a last ditch fight against what has proven the rape of their women and the looting of their dearest possessions. Conscripting foreign labor during a war can no more be used as a precedent, for doing the same in peacetime than shelling cities in war can be used to justify shelling them in peace. The problem is too complex to be handled briefly. Deep thinkers see that all conscription, in peace and war, by friends or enemy, violates the Spirit of Christianity, exactly as slavery always violated it, tho it took Christian thinkers centuries to fully recognize the violation. Actually, conscripting civilians during war for so-called defense is no more wrong than conscripting soldiers. Someday, we will recognize both as equally wrong.

But in the meanwhile, nations that frown on any conscription in peacetime, adopt it unblushingly in wartime. Similarly, if a nation during a war, defending itself against the obviously unjust policy of unconditional surrender, conscripts alien labor as an emergency measure and as a military necessity, she cannot really be justified, but no international lawyer and no right-minded person anywhere would consider such conscription comparable in iniquity to the permanent use of the vanquished as slave laborers, when hostilities and "military necessity" have ceased.

The one is like the bombing and destruction of cities and civilians during a war, wrong enough; but the other is like making the destruction of cities and civilians a permanent way of life, unthinkable (except of course to our Morgenthauists who want to keep German industrial centers in a permanent state of destruction!)

Dear Leon:

Better late than never—congratulations on your birthday—so many years an individualist. No matter what the subject, no matter what stand you take—we can always be assured that there breathes an individualist. For that fact alone your readers should be grateful—grateful for a paper that compels analytical thought, either to refute or support—for neutrality is out of the question. He is strongest who stands alone, unbetrayed by himself.

Good luck. Sincerely, W. A. Ehlers, Jr.

Mating of Irishman With Japanese

Dear Kosti:

When can I get the entire essay on the "Race Problem" by Philip Ramus, now running in THE BROOM? I have had quite a few experiences lately which tend to show up weak spots in my comprehension of the subject. And could you, when you have time, explain where the Japanese fit into the race picture.

What happens to the child characteristics of a White-Japanese union?

I have such a friend: she has an Irish father and a Japanese mother. She is an admirer of THE BROOM and seems to understand Aryan ideals far better than some of my Aryan friends. She is however very emotional and I wonder if this was because of the blood mixture.

Do the Mazdaznans have any good books on race you could recommend?

Let me hear from you, Love, —M. M.

* * * *

Dear M. M. :

There might be more detailed references by Dr. Hanish in the old issues of the Mazdaznan Magazine on the race picture, but I don't know of any book. He used to tell us a good deal about it in his lectures and many have been taken down in short-hand and are preserved in typewritten form, now in the possession of Emanuel Bachman and Henry Sorge. Someday they will be published and bring in a fortune to some enterprising agent while giving much Light to the general public. Ramus' essay is finished in THE BROOM.

The way I learned my lessons was to follow his principal outlines and have the PURPOSE of each race embedded in my understanding. Once we catch on to the Principle represented by each race, the application is simple.

The white race stands for INGENUITY, the yellow race for ECONOMY. The organism of each race evolved from its preceding race, so that the white contains all the organic faculties of its predecessors, but not vice-versa. Hence we speak of superiority. There is an organic ADDITION in each race which is lacking in the preceding race. Thus it is even more than mere blood, it is also FACULTY. While all faculties exist in rudimentary form in every race, the very unfoldment to a higher degree, so that it predominates, makes the step by step distinction between them.

Having grasped the fundamentals for each race, now it is easy for me to make the applications. Get in touch with Henry Sorge, he has been charged by Dr. Hanish with the responsibility of now teaching these matters in public and arrange with him to bring out the fundamental outline at a Sunday service meeting as soon as the autumn sessions open at the Los Angeles Temple. By attending that service you will get more in half an hour than books could give you in volumes.

Concerning your Irish-Japanese girl friend. Eurasians, like all other mixtures, are always emotionally unstable, because they live between two tremendous pulls as in a whirlpool. Theirs is not an easy lot. You can notice it by the Jews. Where the Eurasian is humble, there is a possibility of re-adjustment. One drop of Aryan blood may redeem the whole body, but the discipline is terrific and few ever step into it voluntarily, deliberately to save themselves from the SIN of their forbears. If you read the Mazdaznan Confession you find rules there: "I deny the bonds of ancestral relation. . . . " and from there on to the end.

Jesus came to the Jews because they were mixtures of Aryan with non-Aryan natives of all sorts. He came to teach them how to redeem themselves, how to PURIFY their system, heart and blood. But the Sanhedrin wants slaves to vice; on that their dominion is established; so Jesus was crucified.

To give an example from my personal experiences. During world war I, when Dr. Hanish did not take a positive stand with the C. O's to war, I was very much disappointed in his neither-here-nor-there stand, and as usual had to resort to our fundamental rule of "stand alone and mind my own" since I was not going to take part in helping the slaughter. So I went into Mexico. A girl whose father was a Spanish-Castilian gentleman, a former general in the Mexican army, the mother Indian-Mexican became attracted to me as I was teaching Mazdaznan in D. F.

She was a music teacher, vocal and instrument, and by far the best pupil in our classes. As is often the case, the pupil fell in love with her instructor and wanted to marry him.

My sense of responsibility to the children is paramount. She grasped the principle of Breath and Song by far better than any other in our classes and performed her exercises to perfection. But this matter had to come to a showdown. Proximity is very dangerous to a young man in a strange country under the circumstances and she almost persuaded me, but one evening I asked her to bare her breasts. The white woman's breasts are very distinctly formed and differently shaped from an Indian woman. Well, they were Indian, not Aryan. The revulsion I felt a the idea of mating with her was so deep, since I expect much in response from my mate, that I had to tell her very definitely "NO".

Later she married another white man, had a baby, was divorced. I returned to the States and some years ago she came to L. A. and wrote me. But my battle with the Jews here was at its hardest financial crisis so I could not afford to go and meet her. Have not heard from her since.

The Aryan father's inheritance urged her to seek his sphere of living and she could grasp the purpose and method of Mazdaznan, but her Indian mother's physique could not fulfill the needs of the Aryan. What was externalized between her and me, is also battling within herself. The same is taking place in your Irish-Mongolian-Japanese friend. It is taking place in all Eurasian and Eurafricans. It takes a tremendous religious discipline to eliminate the colored blood and allow the Aryan blood to displace it. Of course, such things are done, that's what Christianity is to do for Jews of mixed ancestry. But the ordeal is so tremendous; few rise above the beast in themselves, while most resent it and then you witness the beastly jealousies in action which make the Jews a scourge.

Where infinite LOVE and trust in the RULE of God prevails, there SIN can be annulled and AMNESTY proclaimed, as Jesus taught and the wayward EGO returns to the hearth of the Aryan father.

Am exceedingly busy otherwise would call on you.

Regards and Love, KOSTI.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Thanks for the postal card inquiring whether I get the BROOM regularly now. Yes, I do.

When your paper comes, I drop everything and read it first. I cannot see how they ever will straighten out this world. It is in a fine fix. Tolerance seems to have become a word that none of those GREAT ones understand.

I have a daughter that worked in the UNRRA in Africa and has come back full of malaria, she is in the hospital here and will not go back.

Enclosed I am sending you a check for $3 a late birthday present. Excuse delay.

Keep up the good work, Sincerely, — F. H. C.

FOR KING AND EMPIRE

The British are beside themselves with delight, now that our government has taken the lead in challenging Russia's ambition to gain control of the Turkish straits. Our state department, in its note to Moscow and in statements commenting on it, has made it clear that if Russia uses force we shall defend the Turks with force.

Spokesmen for Britain at the Paris conference were immensely pleased. Britain, they said with unexpected candor, would much prefer "to take a back seat." The French felt just the same way about it. Russian ill will is therefore to be concentrated upon this country. Britain can sit back and let us fight for her.

WOUNDED RABBIT RESPONSIBLE FOR HUNTER'S DEATH

PALMDALE,—A rabbit killed a man who was trying to kill it.

Kenneth Arthur Burt, 21, of Ontario, shot the rabbit in the desert near Littlerock and chased it to the shelter of a brush clump near by.

He raised the rifle barrel to smash it down on the stricken animal.

But its trigger caught in a rabbit paw—

Burt fell—shot through the heart.

STALIN'S SLAVE LABORERS

BERLIN,—Former German soldiers discharged from soviet imprisonment six to 12 months ago as physically unfit for labor, are being re-arrested following their recuperation at their homes. They are again impressed into Stalin's slave camps which have a population estimated at 3 million to 4 million.

Two former prisoners of war who arrived here from Frankfurt-on-Oder, in the Russian occupation zone, told the interviewer of meeting truck loads of ex-soldiers enroute to barbed wire enclosures for the second term of servitude. Also in the trucks were youths in their teens, victims of a wave of kidnappings in the Russian occupation zone.

WEAR TATTERED CLOTHES

"The Russians are replacing those of us whose bodies are broken by heavy labor and poor food," said one of the informants. "That is the only reason they let us go."

THE BRITISH ALLIANCE

From evidence which meets the eye in many places the conclusion is virtually forced that the United States and Great Britain have a secret alliance. Mr. Truman and Mr. Byrnes cannot be acting by clairvoyance and it is improbable that they are on a schedule of day by day telephone calls from London. Secrets come to light from time to time. This may be one for future disclosure.

Proof that England thinks world conditions are very serious for the island's dominance in Europe and for the empire's security is to be found in the reimposition of the American draft to which available men are now to be subjected again. This is not a draft for military training, but for military service. It is not the selection of a class in a new program of national defense, but a grab-all for purposes not covered by the explanations. Our war and navy departments are planning beyond the scope of national interests. —Chicago Tribune.

Japs Get "Fair" Trial ?

COURT BALKS AT TOJO'S EVIDENCE AGAINST RUSSIA

TOKYO,— The international tribunal refused to permit the defense for Hideki Tojo and 26 other accused war criminals to present evidence intended to show that the notorious Tanaka memorial, a pamphlet outlining a plan for world conquest, was written by Chinese Communists.

The president, William Webb of Australia, halted Capt. Samuel Kleiman when the defense attorney attempted to prove that Russia used its consulate in Harbin to spread communist propaganda in 1929.

QUESTION CHINESE GENERAL

Kleiman explained that he wanted to establish that the Tanaka memorial was not written by Baron Tanaka, as the presecution charges, but by Chinese Communists. Webb refused to permit Kleiman to continue the cross-examination on that basis of Gen. Chin Teh-chung, China's vice minister of national defense.

Thurout the afternoon the defense peppered Chin with questions aimed at showing that the Tanaka paphlet, calling for four stages of world conquest, actually was a fraud perpetrated to inspire hatred of the Japanese.

NEVER SAW ORIGINAL

Chin admitted he "never had seen the original of the memorial" and that the pamphlet, widely circulated in China, had not been traced to Japanese origin.

The defense developed that China's central government was powerless to transfer its generals in North China before the outbreak of the Sino-Japanese war.

As a result of this condition, the defense maintained, Japan was forced to deal with local governments and, under old treaties, had the right to pour more troops into North China and Manchuria to protect her nationals and their property.

It has just leaked out that thousands of Frenchmen who were held prisoners in Germany, instead of being returned to their homeland, were taken by the Russians into Russia where they are now held in prison and slave labor camps. This fact has been known by certain newspapermen in France, but the newspapers were threatened with loss of their paper quota if they reported this disgraceful fact.

Troublemakers who called themselves pickets and tried to break up a Nationalist Rally in St. Louis, June 28, were arrested and fined a total of $3100. The leader of the gang, (head of the St. Louis Communist Party) whose name is John Rossen, was fined $1100.

Dewey's Stooge Convention a Horrible Example of Non-Constitutional System

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7 (Special),—Since the alienized State of New York, by reason of its size and the unconstitutional system of nominating conventions, has furnished both Presidential candidates in each of the past two national elections, the eyes of the nation were upon the recent political confabs in New York.

Hamilton turned over in his grave, as did every other member of the great body which framed our Constitution in 1787. The Republican and Democratic State conventions to select candidates for governor, U. S. Senator, met in Saratoga Springs and Albany, respectively, on the same days, Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 3 and 4.

The Democratic Newdeal Socialist platform was the more vicious and un-American, turning traitor to the basic States-Right issues of 100 years, and showing unmistakable evidence of red socialist influence. In order to hold its Jewish and Negro followers in line, it cravenly presents the communist line of complete social and political equality between Negroes and whites, attacks the color line existing in three-fourths of our States and seeks to abolish most of the State's rights in voting, taxing and the framing of local laws.

But the Dealers put up abler men in Senator Mead for governor and ex-governor Lehman for U. S. senator than the "Republican" New Dealers did in naming Dewey for a second term as governor and Irving IVES for senator.

Even the formerly staunch Republican paper, "The Hearld Tribune", said that "Republican leadership (Dewey) missed an opportunity when it rejected the candidacy of Major General William J. Donovan for the United States Senate".

Donovan would have won the senatorship over Lehman. Ives of the State Assembly, the Gentile stooge for Jews and Negroes, Dewey's puppet to put across the infamous red measure, the anti-Christian and anti-white "FEPC" law to compel employers to employ Negroes and Jews on the basis of race in preference to white Gentiles, will suffer a terrible defeat at the hands of Lehman.

The Republican convention was completely dominated by Dewey and his patronage stooges, just as the New Deal crowd at Albany was a convention of Federal officeholders and political stooges, dominated by Senators Mead and Wagner.

Such bodies, in their very nature unconstitutional, cannot be free and deliberative. They violate the most sacred principle of the Constitution, which demands that the men who select the executives shall NOT be his appointees or under his thumb. (Art. II, Sec.2).

Conventions do not select men on account of their ability, but soley with an eye on their vote-pulling qualities.

Dewey is a small man mentally and spiritually, suffering from an inferiority complex. He could not bear having as a fellow-candidate so brilliant and able a man as General Donovan; he might be overshadowed. Donovan—a Catholic married to a Prostestant—would have won over at least 200,000 Catholic votes—and victory.

DEWEY (by ignoring Donovan) stupidly wounded the feelings of millions of Catholics in New York State (who are twice as numerous as Protestants). The little man DID NOT NAME A SINGLE CATHOLIC FOR AN IMPORTANT OFFICE ON HIS TICKET.

He is frantic in his efforts to get Negro and Jewish votes, which is outnumbered by white Gentiles six to one. So he put up IVES, whose merit consists soley in his having sponsored the infamous IVES-Quinn FEPC law, the little governor thereby hoping to win enough votes to reelect himself and GET IN LINE FOR THE PRESIDENCY, a job he is not qualified to fill.

The Dealers, on the other hand, went to town in bidding for racial and religious groups—two Prostestants, three Catholics (one an Italian) and TWO JEWS—will head the Democratic ticket.

I do not think Dewey expects IVES to win; political demagoguery and personal selfishness induced him to pick IVES because the name brings the "FEPC" sound to his band, hoping thereby that the Jews who vote for Lehman will also vote for Dewey, and that Ives' name may win back some Negroes to the G. O. P. Dewey will be disappointed in both instances.

The G. O. P. platform is very weak. It appeases the labor union czars. It takes no notice of the viciousness of the New Deal Administration in Washington; it even approves of its surrender to the labor racketeers.

When Dewey on the stump in 1944 approved of the New Deal's major laws, he should have been removed from the ticket and a real Republican substituted.

The platform's major crime is its approval of the New York "FEPC" law. It should have said, "We try this as an experiment; if it fails we will repeal it." Instead, they trumpet it as a divine measure, and permanent.

Dewey, of course, being rather dumb, may not know that the reason the Communists make the "FEPC" their No. 1 objective is that it will enable them to plant Red Negroes and Jews in every factory in America, in preparation for the day when they hope to take over our industrial equipment.

The American Vegetarian Magazine Features Gloria Maud Gasque and Mazdaznan

In his issue for August, E. L. Pratt, Pismo Beach, California, features Gloria Maude Gasque's return from Bombay to New York with a picture on the front page and two stories on page 5 and 7.

Maude Gasque, born in Chicago, in Mazdaznan circles known as "Mother Gloria", had been one of the leading female heads of the movement in Great Britain and its colonies. After many interesting experiences with Mazdaznan activities she went to Bombay, India, where she had the opportunity of comparing the ancient Parsee Sun-Worship teachings of MAZDA with the modern version presented by Dr. Otoman Zaradusht Hanish to the western world. She stayed in India during the larger portion of the war.

The stories in the American Vegetarian are by-lined to the credit of Sadie G. Stave, of New York, giving some historic background of Gloria's childhood and Dr. Hanish's work as a teacher of vegetarian living. Each closes with what most probably was a typewritten handout, signed once by "Maude Gasque" and in the second story by "Gloria Gasque". The contents thereof are really good. We reprint them here:

The Three Greatest Weapons

It is strange how there is so much concern and anxiety over Weapons of Destruction, when, for years, a definite war has been carried on, right in our very midst, without so much as a thought being given to the devasting weapons so actively used. Today, these destroyers of humanity have attacked the youth and flower of our nation as never before.

We refer to the methods of what was ancientlly called "Angro Mainyus"— the spirit of evil—to weapons which have been scattered wide and far among the Divine Family of God on earth—mankind—with the aims to destroy utterly the body and mind of the children of God. Subtly have these weapons against man been sent out—through Church, State and Commerce —under the guise of "modern" living, of "smart" charm, of "civilized people". In this manner has society gradually made the way clear for the destruction of the ideals within the hearts of men and thus have struck at the very roots Infinite Designs.

"In the beginning," we are told, "Man was made in His likeness." That likeness was intended to be maintained and unfolded. There was bestowed upon mankind three prime rivers through which all his needs would be called unto himself—and even that joy, happiness and peace which surpasses the understanding. These three streams are the bloodstream, the nerves and the glands. These are the mediums thru which the Divine Entity resident in every human heart, must operate in performing His will, in demonstrating His Purity, His Perfection, His Joy.

The three weapons which have been spread abroad in a false guise of "superior culture" (!) are carrion-eating, the drinking of alcohol, and smoking. What more perfect weapons could be used by Angro Mainyus than these three to destroy utterly the Divine quality of the Intelligence of Man and of his will toward the Manifestation of Purity and Perfection!

In the first place the flesh-eating utterly destroys all purity of blood, cancelling thereby the Ancient Lineage; the smoking destroys all normal action of the nerves, polluting the Breath of God, the continuity of contact with the Infinite; the alcohol destroys the Glandular activity upon which the Infinite Intelligence depends in order that man may live as a being conscious of his First Estate and of his Sonship. Thus, his Satanic majesty in his diabolical red and bloodstained robes hovers over our noble cities and over our homes which should be holding aloft the demonstrated teachings of Purity and Perfection to all mankind and, as he waves his three flaming flares of destruction he hurls them into the hearts which will accept them and shouts in joy; and in infernal glee he cries to all his unseen embassy of hell: Give me the three subtle, insidious, all-destructive weapons which I cast into the Family Circle of Man, their homes, their temples, amidst their purely born, and I shall make the worldly war in Europe look like a toy for children! For I shall destroy the KINGDOM OF GOD ! !

My Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Enclosed you will find my check for five dollars ($5.00), for which please send me a bundle of fifty copies of the August 12th issue of THE BROOM. I want to scatter around the article, Federal City, by your great columnist Washington Adams a bit. Mr. Adams is my favorite columnist, and I read 'em all. He is honest, fearless, and courageous in his analysis of the present world situation. More power to him!

In the same issue you have a letter from G. J. Knapp in which he expresses disgust with our "intellectual morons and moral bankrupts", saying that he regrets having spent 35 years fighting the battles of "this aggregation of fools and poltroons". He concludes that they are headed for destruction, and "that complete destruction is about all they are worthy of". Now he has decided to sit on the sidelines and watch these "fools" get what is coming to them, ie: slaughter by the Communists.

I am asking you to publish this so that Mr. Knapp will know that he struck oil. I understand his viewpoint clearly, and I say that he is still in this "battle for survival", or else he would not have even written you that letter. Mr. Knapp wants to take courage. We cannot lose this battle, for OUR WHITE RACE depends for its continued existence on our WINNING out in this mortal fight!

Mr. Knapp will find my address at the end of this letter, and I hope he will get up the courage to write me, for I would like to send him a copy of my book which Mr. Adams spoke highly of in his column. Being an Aryan of pure descent, I love my fellowmen, and do not care a whit about money, in itself, but I see clearly that we Aryans have to "take a stand" or else our beautiful species will be mongrelised and disappear from the face of the earth.

Here's a tip for OUR people who are against the "racial equality" crowd. When speaking or arguing about the white and colored races. . . . only think about the women of those races. Here YOU have them! Just ask the men how THEY would bid at an auction sale where you had on the block a beautiful blue-eyed blonde . . . and a thick-lipped black or bronze boogie-woogies queen! Any man, and we need to get this into their moronic heads, who would bid at all on the boogie-woogie queen would definitely be an animal himself, and would deserve the treatment men mete out to dangerous animals. The damned communists smother this important fact under a barrage of print and talk about equal economic opportunity. ALL bosh!

There are those who shout about democracy, and prate loud and long about the equality of the races, but THEY do NOT believe in what THEY preach, but hope to influence their listeners to be quiet and peaceful while THEY completely hog-tie them . . . . and put them under Bolshevick machine-gun rule. WHY these WHITE communists want to do this, and destroy and obliterate forever lovely pink skin, blue eyes, and angelic blonde hair is a mystery which we can only attribute to plain ignorance on their part. We believe that once we get this over to them they will join us in preserving these Aryan attributes which once destroyed will end all romance among humans forever and forever. There would be no purpose, after all WHITE people were destroyed by mixing, in manufacturing any beauty aids, for colored people only make themselves ridiculous by trying to pretty themselves up. All love songs would be discontinued, and pink silk underwear and pastel tinted clothing would disappear, for it would only serve to show up the unattractive dusky or black skin. Female business would die! We might even return to the jungle! It takes ever recurring beautiful white women to keep civilization going.

My best regards to you and the boys. Keep up the good work. You surely deserve credit for keeping on in the face of our own people's ignorance. They are blindly swallowing the communists' propaganda, and actually hate and despise those leaders who are valiantly fighting their battles for them.

Your faithful, fighting Nordic,

In the past two years crime has increased one-third in the United States. Young people under 20 years of age are delinquent beyond all previous records. In the under 21 year old class are 15 per cent of all the murderers, 35 per cent of all the robbers, 51 per cent of all the burglers, 34 per cent of all the thieves, 26 per cent of all the arsonists, and 30 per cent of all the rapists.

Zionist Jews in New York City are threatening to blow up the British Embassy every day because of their dissatisfaction with the way Britain is handling the Palestine situation.

Reports from the International Conference of Christians and Jews through Religious News Service indicate that the delegates at Oxford, England, have spent some time considering the possibilities of persuading Democratic nations to enact laws against, what they call, "libels upon an entire community or group." The main object is to impose penalties, such as fines and imprisonment, for the publication of anything critical of Jews, such as 'Procotols of the Elders of Zion.'

The Washington TIMES-HERALD, Washington's largest daily newspaper in point of circulation, revealed in a feature editorial on Sunday, August 11, that Drew Pearson, the notorious radio character assassin and smear artist, has been for years an undercover agent and mouthpiece for, to quote the Washington TIMES-HEARLD, "the Anti-Defamation League, a powerful Jewish organization, which, seized by war hysteria, sought by hook or by crook to force quite a number of free Americans to change their way of thinking. Pearson supplied the crook part.

Dear Friend:

True to the "trust" you did bestow upon me: I can never forget the proof you gave me of Christ-like helpfulness in my hours of deepest distress,

I still enjoy the Broom, as you send it to G., and I am here with her again this summer.

Year ago this day you were passing thru S. B. and we honored your birthday then. So now I take you in again doing the same . ($5).

Trusting you may have many more,
I remain as ever, ALICE

I wish you a Happy Birthday. I celebrated my 91st, Monday; born Au. 5, 1855 on a Sunday, so you see you have yet 31 years to go. I wish you as many or more. Enclosed is a check for $10.00. I wish I could make it more, but I am too old to make any more at my age!

Reds Trying to Oust Upton Close From Air

NEW YORK, (Special),—The Bolshevik hate sheet PM is joining the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, the American Veterans Committee, the New York CIO, Friends of Democracy and other leftwing organizations in a vicious campaign to "CLOSE OUT CLOSE".

The hate sheet urges its readers to write, wire or telephone the local radio station WOR, 1440 Broadway NYC, or Jack Strauss, president of Macy's and WOR, urging the removal of Upton Close from the airwaves. They especially stressed the nuisance value of flooding the station with telephone calls immediately after the Close broadcast on Tuesday night.

On the 3rd instant, Mr. Close, undoubtedly the ablest and one of the most patriotic of all broadcasters—truly "the statesman of the airwaves"—allowed the political bishop, Bernard J. Shiel of Chicago, the somewhat notorious leftist sympathizer, to billingsgate for eight minutes of his 15 minutes time.

There was a little "love and forgiveness" in the pink bishop's broadcast, but rather the angry yelpings of a "hit dog which always howls".

Upton followed for seven minutes and did not descend to the level of the intolerant bishop's name calling harrangue. The churchman's talk seemed to verify Close's original charge that the bishop was one of those "liberals" whose logic "lays down the red carpet in our United States for smirking Communists to stride to power upon."

It would be well for all rightists to write or wire WOR, congratulating them on Close's broadcast and urging its continuance.

The extent of the infiltration of Communist ideas into our New York public school system, staffed largely by women teachers of Russian Jewish extraction, is little understood in old American sections.

Anti-Red groups should be quickly organized all over America; and the Communist party should be ruled off the ballot.

There is a feeling here in New York that Communists are fomenting most of the strikes, now sabotaging our economy.
